

At the beginning of April, we were included in Theater Guide Japan's most recent publication of their magazine!

We are delighted about this, and as well as being thrilled with the international coverage it really brought home how accessible theatre can be, breaking down the boundaries of location.

Theater Guide Japan also feature an interview with Kathryn Hunter who has travelled to the country with Kafka's Monkey which Digital Theatre captured live at the Young Vic in April 2009 and which has toured internationally.

David Tennent and Catherine Tate's Much Ado About Nothing, the pair's first joint stage appearance, is also featured by Theater Guide Japan. Digital Theatre released Much Ado About Nothing to watch online or download in December 2011.

A Marvellous Year for Plums

Anthony Andrews, Nicholas Le Prevost and Imogen Stubbs lead the cast in the world premiere of Hugh Whitmore's sophisticated political thriller A Marvellous Year for Plums - a fascinating examination of the Suez Crisis of 1956.

Chichester Festival Theatre, 11 May - 2 June

Kafka's Monkey Touring

Kafka's Monkey stops in Japan, Paris and Istanbul before it heads back to the UK.

Imprisoned in a cage and desperate to escape, the ape-man reveals his rise through the ranks of the beasts to become a walking, talking, spitting, smoking, hard-drinking man of the stage.

Kafka's Monkey is available on Digital Theatre.

The Get Together

Join four friends as they get together at Sherman Cymru, Cardiff from 22-26 May. Bull and Anna are in love. Marie and Clarke aren't. A couple of drinks, a few regrets. Laughter and betrayal in a light-hearted comedy about friendship.

Sherman Cymru, Cardiff from 22-26 May
